MUSIC FOR THE LIVING

Truth About Seafood is a longtime favorite of the Central Coast. With a mix of a modern and classic rock sound, TAS draws a wide range of fans making it a perfect fit for outdoor events, community gatherings and full blown rock shows. Truth About Seafood is influenced by a variety of groups from the Foo Fighters to Beatles and Red Hot Chili Peppers. In the past few years, TAS has played a number of concert events including Concerts in the Plaza (SLO), Concerts in the Park (Paso Robles), CA Festival of Beers, Taste of SLO, Live on the Rocks (The Cliffs, Shell Beach) and shows at several wineries across the Central Coast. The band has also had the pleasure of sharing the stage with Stone

Temple Pilots, Toad the Wet Sprocket, the Mother Hips, and the Supersuckers. In 2009, Seafood was named one of the top 3 local bands in the New Times' "NEWTIE" awards.

PRESS & PROMOTION

Voted "One of the 3 Best Bands on the Central Coast" by the New Times NEWTIES Awards Showcase in 2009

Truth About Seafood recently released a new self-titled rock album filled with the soaring choruses, harmony vocals, and rocking sounds you've come to expect from this local rock quartet.

Glen Starkey (New Times SLO)

...these guys are definitely a foursome to watch.

Colin Jones (Cal Coast News.com)

"Truth About Seafood represents the best of what's out there right now. I liked them so much, we recorded their 3rd album in my studio."

Eric Kretz (Stone Temple Pilots)

"Truth About Seafood showcases this trio as an exceptional group of musicians and songwriters who have the potential to appeal to a wide cross-section of fans."

Borivoj Krgin (RIP Magazine)

The recklessly disorganized, ridiculously entertaining, freewheeling and back-dealing wonder Truth About Seafood flops around like a recently landed marlin. Get impaled on their pop-rock oodness.
